

Official 2018 Scarecrow Nation Entry Form

By submitting this entry form I hereby permit the Troy Historic Village to use photographs, stories and actual scarecrow entries, and all information contained on this official entry form for publicity and promotion of this event.

The Troy Historic Village reserves the right to deny entry to any scarecrows deemed offensive or inappropriate, at its sole discretion. I agree to have my (group's) scarecrow on display and understand that the scarecrow (or any items submitted with it) will not be returned to me.

By signing this entry form, I hereby agree to the contest rules as stated and release and hold harmless the Troy Historic Village staff, volunteers and affiliates from any and all claims for loss, damage or injury incurred by scarecrow row participants.

Official 2018 Scarecrow Nation Contest Rules

- Use your imagination to create a fun, creative and family-friendly scarecrow. Gory, provocative, offensive or other scarecrows deemed inappropriate for public display will not be exhibited or entered into the contest. (Troy Historic Village reserves the right to make this determination on the appropriateness of the submission.)
- Your scarecrow must be weatherproof! It will be outside until the end of October, so please make sure that all clothing, accessories and other features are very well-attached and can withstand rain.
- Scarecrows will not be returned to entrants once submitted; please do not use items of great sentimental or monetary value to build your scarecrow. (Troy Historic Village is not responsible for any damaged or lost scarecrows or items the scarecrow may be wearing)
