ORGANIZATIONAL HISTORY

This collection contains the records of the City of Troy. The first Europeans in the area that is now Troy were New Yorkers during the 1820s. It started as a township and was an agricultural community. The end of World War II brought economic changes to the community and in 1955 it became the City of Troy. After it became a city, Troy saw much development and has become a large, thriving community.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection contains budgets, audits, reports, and other organizational records pertaining to the running of the City of Troy.

Arrangement: Series 1 in this collection is for the most part arranged chronologically and Series 2 is arranged alphabetically.
